

He said, Doctors of AGMC, GBP and IGM along with doctors of Sonamura Hospital and 20 health workers and technicians will provide health care services in the camp. The camp will commence from 9.30am. Specialist doctors of medicine, gynecology, ENT, pediatrics, skin etc will be available in the camp. Facility for free of cost ECG and blood tests will also be available, said Biswajit Das, secretary of the Society.

City Police have deployed additional TSR jawans, Women Police personnel and central paramilitary troopers, for the New Year duty to maintain law and order and to ensure road discipline. A special drive to nab drunken motor bikers is also undertaken by Police in order to reduce the number of accidents. City Police have geared up to ensure that the celebrations December 31 night are not marred by any untoward incidents. "Extra Police personnel have been deployed at different pockets in the capital", said a highly placed officer in the police department.

The city is ready to usher in the New Year with merriment. The celebration in the city will start at 6 pm (New Year's Eve) and it may go up to 12.30 am. The evening will attract music lovers of the city and is complimented with a welcome drink, snacks and an extensive selection of both Indian and International dishes. Despite chilly weather, large number of people is expected to attend the celebration. City hotels are aptly decorated with festive lights and spangles.
